EST. 1879

Welcome!

Teach me your ways,
O Lord.

*Remember that your compassion, O LORD, and your love are from of
old. In your kindness remember me, because of your goodness, O LORD.*

Teach me your ways,
O Lord.

*Good and upright is the LORD; thus he shows sinners the way.
He guides the humble to justice and teaches the humble his way.*

3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him. - Mk 1:19-20

CONFESSION : A GUIDE

As the Father has sent me, so I send you. . . . Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained. (Jn 20:21-23)

Catholics have an obligation to go to confession at least once a year (CCC1457) . If you are in mortal sin, you should not receive Holy Communion, even if you experience deep contrition, without first going to confession. Here is a guide for confession from a priest: Two things that normally get omitted in such accounts are: 1) mortal sins must be confessed according to number and kind (i.e., how many times one has committed such sins since one's last confession, and what it was), and 2) venial sins do not have to be confessed as such, but can be confessed generally. This can help one simplify one's confession (except from Denver Catholic).

St. Joseph Catholic Parish offers confession M-F 7:30AM and 11:00AM. Saturdays at 8:30AM or by appointment.
