JUBILEE CORNER

PILGRIMAGE SITES

There is still time to gain a plenary indulgence by visiting the Colorado Pilgrimage Sites. Here is the list of sites you and your family can visit: Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, Denver; St. Stephen Church in Glenwood Springs; Holy Name Church in Steamboat Springs; Our Lady of Peace Church in Silverthorne; St. John the Evangelist Church in Loveland; St. Francis of Assisi in Longmont; St. Helena in Fort Morgan; St. Anthony in Sterling; and the Mother Cabrini Shrine in Golden.

The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence “by visiting the Cathedral or other church or sacred place designated by the local Ordinary” (Decree on the Granting of Indulgence during the Ordinary Jubilee Year 2025).

According to the Vatican’s decree, local pilgrims of hope may receive the plenary indulgence under the normal conditions and when they travel to one of the established pilgrimage sites “in a spirit of pilgrimage” during the Jubilee Year and participate in:

- A Mass;
- A Liturgy of the Word;
- One of the major hours of the Liturgy of the Hours (Office of Readings, Morning Prayer, or Evening Prayer);
- Stations of the Cross;
- The Marian Rosary;
- The recitation of the Akathist hymn;
- Or penitential celebration, which ends with individual confessions.

They may also obtain the indulgence under the normal conditions “by piously visiting these sites as well and engaging in a suitable period of Eucharistic Adoration and meditation, concluding with the Our Father, a Profession of Faith and invocations of Mary, the Mother of God,” the decree states (excerpt from DenverCatholic.org).

NINE-YEAR NOVENA

"Mary at the Foot of the Cross," a new icon commissioned by the Archdiocese of Denver and written by Elizabeth Zelasko, a local sacred artist and Denver Catholic columnist. (Photo above)

As we move towards the 2,000-year anniversary, let us keep our eyes fixed on the grace available through Mary at the foot of the Cross. As she kept her gaze fixed on Jesus, so too are we called to “keep our eyes fixed on Jesus” (Heb 12:2). Let us invoke Mary daily throughout these years, preparing for the Jubilee in 2033. If you did not receive a nine-year novena card, the prayer can be found here:
