Holy Saturday invites us into a sacred stillness—the quiet space between the sorrow of the Cross and the glory of the Resurrection. On this day, the Church keeps vigil with Mary and the disciples, who waited in darkness yet held onto hope. It is a day of longing for the Lord, of resting in the silence where God seems hidden, yet is at work bringing forth new life. As we await the joy of Easter, we place our own sorrows, uncertainties, and desires into the tomb with Christ, trusting that He will transform them. In this holy waiting, we learn again to hope in Him who conquers death and fulfills every promise.
