PARISH

SECOND COLLECTION TODAY!

Annual Mission Appeal 2026

Each year, our parish supports a mission that serves the poor and shares the Gospel. This year, we are supporting the Discalced Carmelite Mission in Tanzania, which helps build chapels in remote villages, supports schools, educates orphans and seminarians, and establishes new Carmelite communities throughout Tanzania.

We are pleased to welcome Fr. Ivan Monteiro, OCD, who will speak at all Masses on August 29-30 about the mission's work and current needs. We invite you to support this important ministry through your prayers and generosity.

Please keep the Carmelite missionaries and the people of Tanzania in your prayers. Thank you for your kindness and support.

About Fr. Ivan Monteiro, OCD:

Originally from Karnataka, India, Fr. Ivan joined the Carmelite Mission in Tanzania in 1997 and spent 18 years serving the Archdiocese of Denver. He ministered at St. Thomas More Parish in Centennial from 2016 to 2024 in support of the Tanzanian mission and now serves at the Carmelite Retreat Center.
